1. Please provide a general description of your department's function

The Community Resource & Retention Centers (CRRC) strive to improve the retention of all UC Davis students by promoting student-centered work that advances equity. We do this by using intersectional approaches and advocacy to build community and contribute to students' success on campus. In order to enhance the overall student experience, we intentionally ground our work in the field of Student Affairs and student development theory and employ best practices to guide our work. The department's function is made up of 7 units and supported by an Executive Director and Executive Assistant (salary/benefits included). The Executive Director has oversight of all the CRRC units.

Units

Undocumented Student Resource Center
Center for Student Involvement
Cross Cultural Center
LGBTQIA Resource Center
