

COSAF Council Expectations and Participation

- Attend regular council meetings, held every other Friday, 11:30 am – 1:00 pm.
- There will be no meetings over Winter and Spring breaks.
- The most up to date meeting schedule is always posted on the COSAF website, cosaf.ucdavis.edu, under the Meetings tab.
- Attendance will be taken at all meetings.
- Members must notify Co-Chairs in advance of missed meetings:

Jewel Corral, Co-Chair jmvsorral@ucdavis.edu

Tristan Hicks, Co-Chair thicks@ucdavis.edu

Members may be removed from the Council for attendance issues

- Reading material will be provided to council members prior to each meeting. Following each meeting, reference materials will be posted on the COSAF website, cosaf.ucdavis.edu, under the Resources tab.
- Members (with exception of Staff, Faculty, ASUCD President and Ex-Officios) are paid with a stipend, which is divided equally and paid every two weeks, from October through May. There is no need to complete a timesheet.
- In addition to attending regular Council meetings, Undergraduate members will be asked to join one of the following subcommittees:
 - Student Services Fee
 - Student Programming Fund
 - Student Development Fund / Dean Witter Fund / Equity in Mental Health Programming Fund
- Optional external committees to join are:
 - Health Fee Oversight Committee (HFOC)
 - Student Health Insurance Program Committee (SHIP)
- During meetings:
 - Respectfully challenging items is appropriate and expected of Council members.
 - It is your money being spent and allocated and you should understand and provide input on the fees that you and the other 40,000+ students you represent are paying.
 - Asking questions or seeking clarification is the best way to ensure you fully understand the work of the council.
 - Being a change agent- A change agent is a person from inside or outside the organization who helps an organization transform itself by focusing on such matters as organizational effectiveness, improvement and development. Members of COSAF can be change agents for the greater good of our campus.
