Our funding support in this area is designed to benefit undergraduate, graduate and professional students by supporting efforts to create a welcoming and supportive campus climate that values the diverse backgrounds and perspectives that all our students bring to our campus community. The funds support our efforts to bring our Principles of Community to life in an interactive educational and practical manner. These funds also help us to expose our students to the many diverse cultures, traditions, and experiences of the students, faculty and staff that comprise our campus community and the global village of which we are a part.
