About the WRRC

The Women's Resources and Research Center (WRRC) provides a place for students to learn about resources and educational programs that focus on gender equity and social justice.

It is a great place to meet friends and get involved with on-campus events and student organizations working to address sexism, genderism, and oppression. The WRRC provides opportunities for students to take part in making UC Davis safer and more inclusive for everyone, specifically women, transgender, and gender expansive individuals.

Looking Ahead and Updates

- Outreach Updates
  - Launched new website at start of Fall, easier to navigate and a new “Get Educated” section
  - Working with SAMC on Center map, A frames, and targeted LCD ads for marginalized communities
- Programming Updates
  - Created “Self-Initiated Projects” for student staff in order to give deeper learning opportunities, and promote intersectional programming, i.e. around disability
  - Bringing keynote speaker for Black Futures Month and broadening scope of event
  - Working with campus partners to expand support of student parents and create space for community building and direct resources
  - Creating a culture of “swiping” at our programs in order to better assess who we serve, and are not serving
- Future Goals
  - Expand STEM 4 Girls day-long pipeline program for youth to a two day program, serve more students
  - Host more large-scale speakers in order to connect with campus more broadly
  - Expand educational efforts around gender equity issues
