Women's Resources
and Research Center

Our Mission

The Women's Resources and Research Center (WRRRC) challenges all forms of oppression, through the lens of gender equity. The WRRRC provides education, advocacy, resources, and a safe space that centers the experiences of womxn, transgender, femme, and non-binary individuals.

Who We Are: WRRC Career Staff

Belen Alcantar
Program Coordinator

Supervises Community Organizers and the majority of WRRC programming efforts, including Black Femme Magic Week, Social Spaces, and more!

Sara Blair-Medeiros
Associate Director

Oversees marketing and outreach efforts, educational workshops, STEM programs, Women of Color Retreat, and the Davis Feminist Film Festival.

Cecily Roberts
Director

Oversees WRRC general operations and budget. Focuses on advocacy work, student parent programming, scholarships, and End of Year Banquet.

Rose Mackenzie
Office & Library Coordinator

Takes the lead on administrative responsibilities including purchasing, fiscal procedures, managing Center email, and overseeing Library operations.
